AASL eCOLLAB offers more than 150 webcasts, podcasts, and digital resources for on-demand learning including resources addressing steadfast and emergent topics in collection development for school libraries.

- Aligning collections with current learning standards
- Dewey Decimal System versus genre shelving
- Expanding role of e-books in genre shelving
- Learning commons model
- Virtualizing library services
- Addressing the needs of a new generation of students

Two ways to access

1. Join AASL: Receive access to eCOLLAB as a feature of membership. To join, visit www.alaw.org/aasl/join.

Already an AASL member? Use your ALA-provided log-in to access resources.

2. Subscribe to eCOLLAB: $199/year. Access resources available to members through an annual subscription. For more information, visit ecollab.aasl.org.

Keep your elearning opportunities consistently fresh and focused on the topics facing the profession today, regardless of your budget or geography.

For more information, visit ecollab.aasl.org

Share your expertise
Contribute to the eCOLLAB community. To submit your idea, visit www.alaw.org/aasl/proposals.